

Satet Bench

Satet Bench

The Satet Bench's distinctive silhouette makes it a subtle showstopper. The softness of the woven seat cascades over the bold facets, bringing together the intricacy of the weaving and the bold structure of the frame. The storage spaces below add the option for unique functional storage in this statement piece. The perfect addition to a hotel lobby or home entryway, the Satet Bench is suitable for commercial and residential use. Each bench has a slight variation on the abstract pattern, making each piece truly unique. Please refer to the Materials Catalogue for all available options.
